SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Drawing from Nevada, California and the surrounding states, the 2007 Silver & Gold Venture Capital Conference brings together technology entrepreneurs; angel and venture capital investors; academia; technology and industry executives; state and federal policy leaders; and professional services providers – all groups who share a commitment to the notion that innovation-based entrepreneurs are key economic drivers in today's highly competitive global economy.

The 2007 Silver & Gold Venture Capital Conference provides sponsors direct access to the event's audience drawn Nevada, California and other western U.S. states.

Depending on the level of sponsorship, supporting firms will:

- Be actively involved in the Silver & Gold Venture Capital Conference screening and selection committee
- Participate as Guest Faculty during the Power of Angel Investing Seminar
- Opportunity to “rub elbows” with the presenting company CEOs and also leading angel and venture investors
- Be actively involved as a mentor to presenting companies
- Receive valuable branding and recognition at the Conference, in print, online and in all emails
- Receive access to full attendee list

The Silver & Gold Venture Capital Conference sponsors will increase their visibility as recognized supporters of entrepreneurship and innovation while strengthening their relationship with technology companies, c-level executives, angel and venture capital investors, and academia. The Silver & Gold Venture Capital Conference provides high branding visibility throughout all pre-event and on-site marketing materials and media exposure at the conference.
